

FRIDAY, AUGUST 10, 1744.

Warsaw, July 29.

THE opening of the General Dyet at Grodno is fix'd for the 24th of next Month. The great Point there will be, procuring an Augmentation of Forces; which, it is foreseen, will be violently opposed. The Court appears to be, of late, in great Agitation; and it is believed, that something of very great importance is on the Carpet; the rather, because the King has declared he will not dispose of any of the vacant Employments, till after the Preliminary Dyets are over. We talk again of an Interview between the King and the Czarina at Kiow, but it is very uncertain whether it will take Effect; but however that may be, we are thoroughly sensible that two Courts cannot hold a more perfect Understanding than subsists between this and that of Moscow.

Madrid, July 27. Their Majesties, and all the Royal Family, who set out from hence for St. Idetonso, on the 20th, arrived there in good Health on the 21st. The Infanta had a Fall by the Way, but without receiving any Hurt. Several Councils have been held lately, regard to a Secret Expedition, of which mighty hopes are form'd; though no-body pretends to guess whom it is designed. All we know of it with certainty is, that it was recommended by Cardinal Albornoz, and that a considerable Sum of Money has been advanced towards it by some of the rich Clergy; whence it should seem a Project in Favour of Religion; since the King has not hitherto shewn any extraordinary Zeal in carrying on the War.

Turin, July 27. The King has strongly reinforced the Army of Tortonara, near Bellin, which covers his Camp in the Valley of St. Peter; in which Camp, he has been lately reinforced by four Battalions; and the Baron de Lautrec is on his March from the Valley of Susi, with four Battalions more. The Troops that were cantoned in the Valles of Maira and Grava, are likewise on their March to join the Royal Army. The Count de la Rocca, and the Marquis Pallavicini, have likewise joined him with the Troops which were under their Command, in the Valley of Stura, as well as the Life-Guards and the Cavalry. We are satisfied, that his Majesty is already at the Head of 25,000 Foot, and 4000 Horse. It is believed, however, that his Majesty will still draw 10,000 more out of his strong Places, that he may be in Condition to defend himself, in case the Prince of Conti should first drive the Royal Army out of the Field, and then march directly to this City. The Firmness and Steadiness shewn by his Majesty, encourages every one to their Duty cheerfully; and it may be very truly said, that never Troops were seen in higher Spirits, than these. We are preparing a large Train of Artillery, which will be ready in a very few Days; and will then march forward for the Royal Army.

Genoa, July 31. Since the great Affair of Chateau de Saverne, the King of Sardinia is retired to St. Peter, where he is assembling all his Forces, in order to harass the French, in case they should persist in their Design of taking the Siege to Coni. So much of our Artillery and Ammunition, as surpasses what is absolutely necessary for the defence of the Citadel of this Capital, will be transported to Genoa. We expect very speedily, a considerable Body of Troops from the Tyrol, but they will be most of them regular Troops, in order to reinforce our Garrisons, and to secure the King of Sardinia. If they arrive time enough for that Purpose, they will assemble in the Neighbourhood of Tortonara; if not, they will be dispersed to the Fortresses of this Duchy.

Frankfort, August 9. We expect here, daily, the Field Marshal Count Schmettau, from Berlin, who is said to be charged with an extraordinary Commission from his Majesty; upon whom, at present, all our Hopes are placed. We have certain Advice, that his Forces are every where in Motion; and we are very well satisfied, that as soon as he takes the Field, some other German Prince will declare themselves. The Queen of Hungary, and her Allies, have long entertained an Opinion, that they have a great Influence in the Dyet of the Empire; and the Imperial Majesty has put that to the Test, by sending a Decree to the Diet at Ratis, as must put it out of dispute, who shall, for the future, be considered as the Head of the Empire. All the Ministers and Generals of the most Christian Majesty, have done their utmost to engage him to remain at Metz, and not to proceed to the Army on the Rhine; his Majesty heard them coolly, and with Attention, but did not think fit to explain himself as to his Resolution on that Point. All the Letters from Alsace agree, that the Austrians commit the greatest Excesses in the Neighbourhood of Strasbourg and Landau, where they have burned several Villages to the Ground, and absolutely ruined the Inhabitants. It is supposed they did this, with a Design to force them to take Refuge in those Cities; that, by crowding them with People, they may be the sooner reduced to a Scarcity of Provisions; in which it is thought, they will succeed. We are now told, that the Action which happened on the Fifth, was not between Prince Charles and Marshal Coigny, as we supposed, but between General Nadasti and the Duke de Harcourt; who, the Day before, had joined the Chevalier de Belleisle; who, are said, to have received a very great Check. It is strange to see how the Attention of the Publick varies; our Thoughts, a Week ago, were fixed to the Motions of the Armies in Alsace; but, at present, we are entirely taken up with the Motions of the King of Prussia. If he invades Bohemia, as we expect he will, the Austrians, instead of marching their Troops out of Bavaria, to join Prince Charles, will find themselves obliged to evacuate the Electorate, in order to preserve Bohemia. As it is, they are kept in such Suspence, that they know not which Way to move, or how to turn themselves. In the mean time, his most Christian Majesty is assembling an Army which will be very soon superior to that of Prince Charles, and able, perhaps, to force him once more over the Rhine.

Extract from a Private Letter, dated from the Austrian Head Quarters at Hochfelden, August 7, 1744.

'In all probability we shall continue for some time in this Camp, where we are in the most advantageous Situation that it is possible to conceive. The Right Wing is covered by the Body under the Command of General Nadasti; which is so posted, as entirely to command the narrow Passes of Pfaltzbourg. General Berenclau, with the Forces under his Command, cover the Left Wing; and extend their Posts from the Forest of Brumst quite to the Rhine. General Ghilini, with his Corps, is advanced three Leagues beyond the Centre of the Army.'

'At the Foot of our Camp runs the River Sore, and behind us we have the Motter. These two Rivers throw themselves into the Rhine at Drusenheim, where we have fixed our Communication with the Empire; whence we draw, with the utmost Safety and Ease, whatever Kind of Subsistence we should be at a Loss to find at Alsace. I must also observe, that so long as our Army continues in this happy Position, Fort Louis is effectually block'd up, and altogether useless to the Enemy; as is also Landau. We sent away Yesterday 80 French Deserters, in order to clear the Camp of them; but we have already as many more, to whom we have given Passports. It is observed, that most of them chose to go to Italy.'

'It was not, as has been reported, the Marquis de Chamilli, but the Marquis de Chateler, who commanded at Saverne. M. Coigny and Field-Marshal Seckendorff continue, with their Army, behind the Canal of Molheim; where they are endeavouring to strengthen themselves, by drawing all the old Troops out of Strasbourg, and the other strong Places in Alsace. It is certain, that these Generals have hitherto agreed very well together; but, in all human Probability, there will not be any great Harmony in their Councils, when they are governed by the Marshals Noailles and Belleisle, who are to share in Command.'

Hanover, August 8. While Things wore a peaceable Aspect, his Prussian Majesty bought up, in this Country, a prodigious Number of Horses, both for the Use of his Train, and of his Troops. We expect, every Day, two of his Regiments in our Neighbourhood, who are in full March to the Country of Clèves, in their Way to Magdebourg. It is certain that Prince is assembling an Army, which he is to command in Person.

Concerning Gleet and Seminal Weakness of all Kinds.

ALL judicious Physicians and Surgeons allow, that nothing is more difficult to cure Stubborn Gleet and Seminal Weakness, whether or tion'd by too severe purging for Venereal Injuries, violent Strains, Pollution sui, or any other Cause whatever;— that they are dangerous in their Consequences, as well difficult to cure, as is certain, since they exceedingly weaken the Generative Faculties, infect the whole Nervous System, often bring on Hedrick Heats, a Tabes Dorialis, or Confus-tion of the Back, or an Atrophy or Nervous Consumption, which frequently terminate in Death itself.

All such, therefore, who have the Misfortune to be troubled with Old or Stubborn Gleet, Seminal Effusions, Involuntary Emissions, excessive Nocturnal Pollutions, or any Weakness of the Kidneys, Ureters, or Bladder, the Diabetic Incontinency of Urine, or Difficulty of holding their Urine, would doubtless be glad to meet with a certain, safe, speedy Cure, which they most assuredly may, by taking only a small Quantity of a transcendent BALSAMICK RESTRICTIVE ELECTUARY, now published for a general Cure after having for many Years been experience'd never once fail perfectly curing the most Stubborn Gleet known a few Days, without Difficulty or Trouble; as also other Weaknesses of the Back, Reins, Seminal Vessels, Urinary Passages, which almost instantly cures, bring to rights and restoring all those Parts and Passages to the natural Tone and pristine Vigour, in a very extraordinary Manner, and by taking a few Doses of it only.

This transcendent BALSAMICK RESTRICTIVE ELECTUARY is neither disagreeable to take, nor occasions the least Disorder, but is a wonderful Restorative in all Weaknesses and Deof Constitution of any Kind, and particularly strengthens Back, Reins, Seminal and Urinary Vessels to an immense Degree, inasmuch that in any Debility of them, one Dose does more than ten of any other Remedy yet found out; all Persons fatigu'd with Gleet or Seminal Weaknesses of Sort, or Weaknesses of the Urinary Vessels, who take it, in three Days time find it so very effectual, that they will most agreeably be surpris'd at it.

When a Medicine will infallibly accomplish such a speedy and perfect Cure of such difficult Maladies, as Gleet and Seminal Weaknesses are, as this Great Remedy truly directly will, even after all other Means and Medicines been tried in vain; too much cannot be said in it, and All who ever took it for any of the above-mentioned Purposes have readily declared.

The Price is but 6s. a Pot, altho' for its absolute Effect one Pot alone being sufficient in most Cases to accomplish a Cure, worth ten times as much, and by the Author's special Appointment, is to be had only at Mr. Rastall's Toy-shop, at the Rose and Crown against St. Clements Church-yard in the Strand, rarely sealed up, with a Book Instructions, which whosoever carefully reads will perfectly know, when the Gleet or Weakness he is afflicted with succeeds a Venereal Injury, whether all the Malignity the Foul Disease is entirely eradicated or not.

Note, Ask only for a 6s. Pot of BALSAMICK ELECTUARY.
